

God has good plans for your family

minefield of Satan's sexual untruths and sexual temptations.

God loves you and your children and has good plans for your family. Jeremiah 29:11 states, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, 'plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.'" (NIV) Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Satan, however, is doing all that he can to thwart those plans. Jesus said about Satan that "the thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy." Satan carries out his murderous thievery primarily in the cultural arena of sexual immorality.

I believe that the most significant and difficult challenge facing our children today is the successful navigation of the

The traps are many, some subtle and some not-so-subtle. One misstep and much harm can occur. Bruised and tattered hearts, wounded spirits, or bodies infected with sexually transmitted diseases are all painful consequences which may last a lifetime. The most important factor in the success of your children's pursuit of purity is a loving relationship with you, the parents, who are committed to teaching them God's truth about sex and helping them avoid Satan's well-planned temptations.

It is my prayer that these lessons will help and encourage you to teach your children God's plan for sexual purity.

Josh Bullard

Josh Bullard has been teaching on the subject of purity since 1993. He holds a B.S. in Mathematics from Bob Jones University and a Master of Ministry in Christian Education from Luther Rice Seminary. He has been teaching at Christian Heritage Academy, Del City, Oklahoma, since 1984. He and his wife, Genel, have been married since 1985.

