

GOD'S VIEW OF SEX

lesson one self-test

“The reason so many Christian parents are struggling today is that they do not know what they believe [emphasis added] and have not determined the standards, boundaries, and convictions for their children.”

The statement at the left by Dennis Rainey was in the Warm-Up section of this lesson, but it bears repeating again and is worth reflecting upon for a few moments.

Q On a scale of 1 to 10, rate how strongly you feel about the truth and importance of the following statements:

This statement is . . .

not true		true (but so what)		true (and important in my marriage)		true (and important for my children to believe)
----------	--	-----------------------	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

God created sex.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Sex is for procreation in marriage.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Sex is for intimacy in marriage.

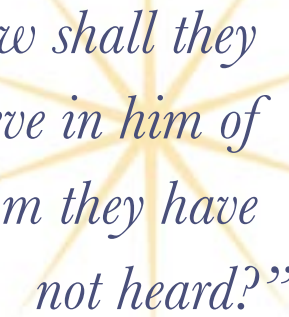

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Sex is for pleasure in marriage.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Sex was created to be enjoyed by a man and a woman in marriage.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

“How shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard?”

In Romans 10:14 Paul makes the following statement about belief in Jesus: “How shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard?”

The same principle applies regarding the beliefs of your children: How shall they believe that which they have never heard?

Q How well are you doing in making sure that your children hear the right things (God’s truth) about sex?

A:

Q What can you begin doing now that will help you prepare yourself to teach your children?

A: